PRESIDENT

Kate Caithness, CBE

Scotland's Kate Caithness is the first female president of the World Curling Federation and the first female president of any Olympic winter sports federation.

First elected president of the WCF in April 2010 and re-elected without opposition in 2012, '14 and '18, Caithness has been involved with the sport of curling since the 1980s. As a member of Scotland's Royal Caledonian Curling Club, she went from playing the game to putting something back into the sport in the late 1990s. She served as president of the RCCC Ladies' Branch in 1997-98, then became an RCCC representative to the World Curling Federation.

Since 2000, Caithness has been the driving force behind the WCF's development of wheelchair curling. She was on the team that created the first World Wheelchair Curling Championship and was instrumental in the sport's inclusion at the 2006 Paralympic Winter Games in Turin, Italy.

From 2005 to '09 Caithness was an elected member of the International Paralympic Committee's five-person Sports Council Management Committee and she served on the Paralympic Games Committee from 2006 to '09.

Caithness was elected vice-president of the WCF in 2006 and served two, two-year terms under former president Les Harrison.

In March 2011, Caithness was appointed to the Olympic Program Commission, responsible for reviewing and analyzing the sports, disciplines and events program, as well as the number of athletes in each sport, for the Summer and Winter Olympics.

Married and the mother of two sons, Caithness has four grandchildren. She spends her free time with family and, when she has a chance, curling and playing golf at her home club in Edzell, Angus, where she was the Lady Captain from 2002 to '04.

THE WORLD CURLING FEDERATION

The World Curling Federation is the recognized governing body of curling in the world.

The WCF's first formal constitution was approved in 1967 under the original charter of the International Curling Federation in Perth, Scotland. The constitution was significantly adjusted in 1982, when the federation was declared independent from Scotland's Royal Caledonian Curling Club, to which its original constitution had been tied. In 1990, the official name was changed to World Curling Federation. Further significant changes were made in 1994.

The WCF has a four-part mandate:

- To represent curling internationally and to facilitate the growth of the sport through a network of member associations
- To formulate rules of the sport of curling for world competition and all other competitions approved by the WCF and to further the interests of world curling
- To conduct world curling competitions
- To provide co-operation and mutual understanding among member associations and to unite curlers throughout the world

CURLING CANADA 2021-22 BOARD OF GOVERNORS

AMY NIXON
Chair

Curling Canada welcomed three new people to its Board of Governors during the organization's Annual General Meeting. At the same time, a new affiliate federation was brought into the fold.

There were three available spots on the Board after Cathy Dalziel of Eastern Passage, N.S., completed her term and two other members stepped down last season.

Elected to the Board for four-year terms were Brian Cowan of Delta, B.C., and Calvin Seaman of Calgary, while Roselle Gonsalves of Edmonton was elected to a two-year term.

They join fellow governors Paul Addison of Victoria, Donna Krotz of London, Ont., Chana Martineau of Edmonton, Amy Nixon of Calgary, Kathy O'Rourke of Cumberland, P.E.I., Darren Oryniak of Winnipeg, and Mike Szajewski of Kenora, Ont.

Nixon was elected as Chair of the Board of Governors, resuming a role she took over during the 2020-21 season.

"I look forward to working with our new Board members as well as our Member Associations and other stakeholders as we continue to change the face of curling in Canada," said Nixon.

Curling Canada also unanimously approved welcoming the Canadian Stick Curling Association as an affiliate member. The CSCA has held national championships since 2004.

CURLING CANADA ADMINISTRATION

KATHERINE HENDERSON

Chief executive officer

Katherine Henderson, Curling Canada's chief executive officer, has a wealth of experience in leadership roles in sports, marketing and brand management that spans more than 25 years.

Henderson assumed the role of CEO in April 2016 and has since led the organization into an era of curling growth and sound business practices, coupled with consistent world-best results on the ice from Canada's national curling teams.

Henderson joined Curling Canada after her role as senior vice-president of marketing and revenue for the Toronto 2015 PanAm/Parapan American Games organizing committee, with which she played a significant role in putting together the most successful non-Olympic sponsorship program in Canadian history, with a who's who of Canada's corporate community. She also oversaw the negotiation of broadcast rights for the games and under her watch the PanAm/Parapan games broke records for attendance, ticket sales and television ratings.

Before that, she spent seven years with the Whirlpool Corporation, filling prominent leadership roles in marketing and general management for the Canadian and North American divisions. She has also worked in marketing/branding roles with other high-profile companies, including Colgate Palmolive Canada, Campbell Soup Canada and General Mills Canada.

"Curling Canada is in the midst of an era of unprecedented financial stability, thanks to the success of our championship events as well as the sound management practices we have put in place within our organization," said Henderson. "At the high-performance level, our athletes continue to represent our country with class and distinction, while we continue to grow the game from the grassroots on up by supporting our country's curling centres with the Curling Assistance Program, Adult Learn to Curl programming and youth curling initiatives. It truly is an exciting time to be involved in the sport of curling."

A long-time runner in her spare time, Henderson holds a bachelor of science degree in nutrition from the University of Western Ontario in London, Ont., a master's in business administration from the Schulich School of Business at York University in Toronto and a master's in theological studies from the University of Toronto.

Here's to growing in the field and throwing to the house.

At New Holland, we're as passionate about farming as you are about curling. It's a dedication born from over 125 years of innovation in the fields that helps others get the most out of theirs. And every piece of equipment we make — from combines, tractors and balers to air seeders, sprayers and skid steers — is engineered with the most important thing of all: the support of your local New Holland dealer. SEASON OF THE MASK

*Curling overcomes
COVID-19 in 'The Bubble'*

IT WAS A SEASON LIKE NO OTHER IN CURLING, ESPECIALLY IN CANADA where the sport normally enjoys a familiar fall-to-spring routine, culminating with a multitude of championship events rolled out one after the other.

Alas, the COVID-19 pandemic laid waste to most of that. Many events were completely wiped off the map, and were it not for the benefit of a wonderfully conceived 'bubble' concept that allowed many high-profile events to take place in WinSport Arena at Canada Olympic Park in Calgary, curling fans would have been deprived of the sport altogether.

Oh, and don't forget the masks. Without them, there would have been no abbreviated curling.

So it is that this year's Curling Canada Fact Book, usually brimming with stats, photos and information highlighting last season's events and award winners, will be a slimmed down version. The major events that were played in the bubble in 2021 – the Scotties Tournament of Hearts, Tim Hortons Brier, Home Hardware Canadian Mixed Doubles, BKT Tires & OK Tire World Men's Championship and the LGT World Women's Championship, will be documented on these pages, as usual. The other events are still recognized in the Fact Book, listing the most recent winners.

CURLING CANADA AWARDS

Jules Owchar (centre) has coached teams skipped by Brad Gushue (left) and Kevin Martin to world and Olympic championships. Owchar is a member of Curling Canada's Hall of Fame.

The COVID-19 pandemic, which set the world back when it was first identified in early 2020, did not spare the sport of curling. The sport was laid low last season, and only the miracle of the Hub City Bubble in Calgary kept national and international events alive.

But the pandemic also played havoc with the men and women who would otherwise be honoured for their contributions to the sport over the past season. Regrettably, many of the award categories went dormant. But Edmonton's Jules Owchar was one person in the sport who was honoured for his contribution to Canadian curling as a coach.

JANET ARNOTT EXCEPTIONAL COACH AWARD

One of the most familiar, and respected, curling coaches in the world has been honoured again.

Jules Owchar, who has coached teams skipped by Brad Gushue and Kevin Martin to world (Gushue in 2017, Martin in 2008) and Olympic championships (Martin in 2010) in addition to helping the curling program at the Northern Alberta Institute of Technology in Edmonton, has been named winner of the 2021 Janet Arnett Exceptional Coach Award.

The award recognizes exceptional coaching contributions and accomplishments over a significant period of time. It is awarded only in special circumstances to an individual who has coached at the national/high performance level, and has been a difference-maker in the sport of curling as a result of their contribution to the development, well-being or sport-for-life aspirations of an athlete, athletes or team.

The award was created by the Women in Curling Leadership Circle to recognize the exceptional attributes and contributions of the late Janet Arnett to the profession of coaching in curling. Arnett's passion, commitment and relentless pursuit of excellence were trademarks of her coaching style.

In addition to his coaching achievements with various teams, Owchar was inducted into the Canadian Curling Hall of Fame in 2019.

Owchar guided Edmonton's Kevin Martin to 10 provincial championships and four Canadian championships. As Martin's coach, he has also coached at three Winter Olympics and four world championships.

After Martin's retirement at the end of the 2013-14 season, Owchar was recruited by 2006 Olympic gold medallist Brad Gushue to coach his Newfoundland and Labrador team. Since coming on board, the team has achieved much success under Owchar's tutelage, including three Tim Hortons Brier titles and a world championship.

Owchar began his career at the Northern Alberta Institute of Technology (NAIT) as a physical education instructor in 1969.

The 2019 world mixed champions: from left, Canadian coach Jim Waite, lead Sara Oliver, second Brendan Bilawka, third Meghan Walter and skip Colin Kurz. With its 6-5 win over Germany's Andy Kapp, Canada became the first ever back-to-back world mixed champions and only the second team to go undefeated since the event began in 2015.

Germany's Petra Tschetsch, Benny Kapp, Pia-Lisa Schöll and Andy Kapp take a timeout in the final. Two sweeping miscalls in the last end may have cost them the title.

OK TIRE & BKT TIRES CONTINENTAL CUP

Presented by Service Experts

THE SPORTS CENTRE AT WESTERN FAIR DISTRICT ›
LONDON, ONTARIO › JANUARY 9 TO 12, 2020

PHOTOS: MICHAEL BURNS PHOTOGRAPHY

It's no secret in the world of curling that the best international teams are at the top of their game and continue to be formidable opponents on the world stage. That was proven once again when Team Europe, returning with the same winning lineup as last year, defended its Continental Cup title with a convincing 37.5 to 22.5 victory over Team Canada.

FINAL SCORE

Team Canada	22.5
Team Europe	37.5

The OK Tire & BKT Tires Continental Cup brought together 12 of the best curling teams in the world — six representing Team Europe, six representing Team Canada — facing off in a unique competition in January 2020 in London, Ontario. A total of 60 points was available from the competition's four events — mixed doubles, traditional men's and women's team play, skins and team scramble. When the four-day competition was completed, Team Europe was declared the winner with 37.5 points and awarded the Continental Cup trophy.

MIXED DOUBLES

Each side picked nine mixed doubles teams. A doubles team consists of two throwers — one man and one woman — who also provided the sweeping.

Points

One point was awarded for each doubles game won. In the case of a tie, each team received half a point. Nine games were played and a total of nine points awarded.

TEAM SCRAMBLE

With an emphasis on how curlers perform with unfamiliar teammates — often opponents — men's and women's teams were mixed to form new same-gender lineups. Mixed-gender teams also competed in the scramble discipline. Front and back-end teammates could not be in the same lineup.

Points

One point was available for each game won. In the case of a tie, each side received half a point. Twelve games were played and a total of 12 points awarded.

SKINS COMPETITION

Aggressive strategy combined with exceptional shotmaking was the highlight of this final battle for points. A total of six skins games — two mixed, two women's and two men's — was played.

A wild celebration erupts and the bench begins to empty when Team Europe wins the race to 30.5 points. Needing just four of 18 available points heading into the final draw of the Continental Cup, Sweden's Oskar Eriksson — skipping a mixed squad against Team Canada's Kevin Koe — delivered the winning blow with a two-skin payoff in the fourth end.

Points

Five points were available for each skins game in Round 1. The first six ends of each game were worth half a point and the last two were worth one point each. In Round 2, the first four ends of each game were worth half a point and the final four one point each for a total of six points. Six skins games were played and a total of 33 points awarded.

Skip Mackenzie Zacharias, third Karlee Burgess, second Emily Zacharias and lead Lauren Lenentine were unstoppable in their quest for the Canadian junior women's crown. The Manitoba reps rolled to a 10-3 victory over Alberta's Abby Marks in the gold-medal game, capping a perfect 11-0 run. It was the province's 10th national junior women's title.

Alberta's Abby Marks hung tough against a favoured Manitoba team, but in the eighth Manitoba scored four to put the game out of reach.

Skip Minji Kim and her South Korean lineup went undefeated in round-robin and semifinal play but fell 7-5 to Canada in the gold-medal game.

"We struggled a little in the first half, but we played a great second half. It's incredible and I'm so happy," said Team Canada skip Mackenzie Zacharias after winning the final.

The 2020 world junior most sportsmanlike awards — as chosen by their contemporaries — went to fourth Anton Hood of New Zealand and skip Maia Ramsfjell of Norway.

Skip Jacques Gauthier led his Winnipeg foursome to Canada's third straight global title. "It's unreal. It was our first final and the boys played really well," said Gauthier.

Skip Marco Hösli and his Swiss mates were no match for Team Canada in the world junior men's final, scoring only two points and shaking hands after the ninth end.

Winning the Scotties Tournament of Hearts once is tough enough. Trying doing it back-to-back. But that's exactly what Kerri Einarson and her team from Gimli, Man., did, knocking off Ontario's Rachel Homan 9-7 in a nail-biting final. The joyous champs (left to right): skip Kerri Einarson, third Val Sweeting, second Shannon Birchard and lead Briane Meilleur.

Top four teams in each pool advanced to the championship round carrying their full win-loss records forward.

SANDRA SCHMIRLER AWARD

Presented in the name of the late Sandra Schmirler, the MVP award was presented to Team Canada skip Kerri Einarson after she was chosen the most outstanding player in the 2021 Scotties Tournament of Hearts playoffs. It was the second year in a row that Einarson was named MVP in the playoffs.

Val Sweeting was a key member of the championship team.

First-team all-star honours went to: (left to right) skip Kerri Einarson, third Val Sweeting, second Shannon Birchard, all of Team Canada, and Manitoba lead Lisa Weagle.

MARJ MITCHELL AWARD

Quebec skip Laurie St-Georges won the Marj Mitchell Award for best embodying the spirit of curling at the 2021 Scotties Tournament of Hearts. The award is named in memory of Marj Mitchell, who skipped Canada to its first world title in 1980. In 1983, shortly after the second Hearts, Mitchell died of cancer at the age of 35. The winner is selected each year in a vote by all players at the tournament.

JOAN MEAD BUILDER AWARD

The 2021 Builder Award was awarded to Calgary's Shannon Kleibrink, who won bronze for Canada at the 2006 Winter Olympics. She also has been an active coach in the Calgary area, as well as overseas. Kleibrink won the Ray Kingsmith award in 2014, signifying outstanding contributions to women's curling. Kleibrink was a vice-chair of the 2015 Tim Hortons Brier and 2015 Continental Cup in Calgary. The award is presented in the name of the late CBC-TV producer Joan Mead, who died suddenly of a heart attack in January 2000,

After coming home empty-handed after three trips to the Tim Hortons Brier final, Alberta's Brendan Bottcher finally struck paydirt in the Calgary "bubble", defeating Kevin Koe's Wild Card #2 team 4-2 in the 2021 final. It was a most satisfying victory for the new Canadian men's champions: (left to right) Bottcher, third Darren Moulding, second Brad Thiessen and lead Karrick Martin.

It takes teamwork to win championships, and Alberta's Brendan Bottcher and mates were a well-oiled machine during the Tim Hortons Brier.

ROSS HARSTONE AWARD

Team Alberta skip Brendan Bottcher is the winner of the 2021 Ross Harstone Award, whose recipient is selected by the players. The award is presented to the curler who best combines playing ability and sportsmanship.

* Due to the COVID-19 pandemic in Canada, Curling Canada opted to include three wild card teams instead of the usual one. These teams qualified based on their performance in the 2019-20 Canadian Team Ranking System.

It's quite something to be a great curler, but to be voted as a great sportsman in addition is a special achievement. Brendan Bottcher displays the Ross Harstone Award.

HEC GERVAIS AWARD

Presented to the most valuable player in the Tim Hortons Brier playoffs, the 2021 Hec Gervais Award was won by Alberta skip Brendan Bottcher.

More hardware for the Brendan Bottcher trophy case. Bottcher displays the award for winning the Hec Gervais Award.

Making the Tim Hortons Brier first team all-star list is quite an honour, and there to enjoy the accolades were (left to right) Brad Gushue, Braeden Moskow, Brad Thiessen and Ben Hebert.

Two of the most recognizable skips in Canada showed they can do a little heavy sweeping when they have to by capturing the Home Hardware Canadian Mixed Doubles championship in Calgary. Showing off their championship hardware after the final victory are gold medallists Kerri Einarson of Gimli, Man., and Brad Gushue of St. John's, N.L. The pair went on to represent Canada at the world championships in Aberdeen, Scotland, where they finished fourth.

Kadrina Sahaidak and Colton Lott had a splendid week on the ice but fell just short of losing in the gold-medal final.

COLIN CAMPBELL MEMORIAL AWARD

Swedish third Oskar Eriksson is the winner of the 2021 Colin Campbell Memorial Award. The award winner is selected annually by competitors in the World Men's Curling Championship as the player who best combines playing ability with sportsmanship. The award was instituted in 1979 to honour the memory of Colin A. Campbell, who served as president of the International Curling Federation (now the World Curling Federation) from 1969 until his death in 1978.

Canada's Briane Meilleur (left) and Shannon Birchard were all smiles after Canada qualified for the playoffs after a poor start. The Canadians lost 8-3 to Sweden in its qualification game.

United States skipped by Tabitha Peterson, with third Nina Roth, second Becca Hamilton, lead Tara Peterson, with support from alternate Aileen Geving and coach Laine Peters, won their first ever bronze medal at a World Women's Curling Championship.

FRANCES BRODIE AWARD

Switzerland's Alina Pätz, who throws skip rocks, is the 2021 winner of the Frances Brodie Award. The award winner is selected annually by competitors in the World Women's Curling Championship as the player who best combines playing ability with sportsmanship. The award was named in honour of Scotland's Frances Brodie, one of curling's pioneering women. Brodie helped establish the women's world championship and chaired the first such event in Perth, Scotland, in 1979. The award was presented for the first time in 1989.

Alina Pätz: a great player for Switzerland and a deserving winner of the Francis Brodie Award.

CANADIAN CURLING HALL OF FAME

There is no greater honour in curling than to be selected to the Canadian Curling Hall of Fame. The Hall, operated by Curling Canada, was established with its first inductees in 1973. The selection committee meets annually to choose inductees from four categories: curler, builder, curler/builder and team. Past presidents of Curling Canada are automatically inducted into the Hall of Fame as part of the Executive Honour Roll.

CURLING CANADA

THREE NEW FACES ON BOARD DECIDED AT ANNUAL MEETING

THERE WILL BE THREE NEW FACES ON the Curling Canada Board of Governors, as well as a new affiliate federation, it was confirmed during the organization's Annual General Meeting.

The governing body for the sport of curling in Canada conducted its AGM in a virtual setting, bringing together Canada's 14 Member Associations along with invited guests to talk about the past season, as well as elect new members to the Board of Governors.

There were three available spots on the Board after Cathy Dalziel of Eastern Passage, N.S., completed her term and two other members stepped down last season.

Elected to the Board for four-year terms were Brian Cowan of Delta, B.C., and Calvin Seaman of Calgary, while Roselle Gonsalves of Edmonton was elected to a two-year term.

They join fellow governors Paul Addison of Victoria, Donna Krotz of London, Ont., Chana Martineau of Edmonton, Amy Nixon of Calgary, Kathy O'Rourke of Cumberland, P.E.I., Darren Oryniak of Winnipeg, and Mike Szajewski of Kenora, Ont.

Nixon was elected as Chair of the Board of Governors, resuming a role she took over during the 2020-21 season.

"The past year has been equally challenging and rewarding for the Canadian curling community, and it showed what we can accomplish by working together," said Nixon. "I look forward to working with our new Board members as well as our Member Associations and other stakeholders as we continue to change the face of curling in Canada and make it truly representative of our country from coast to coast."

"We have so many opportunities in front of us as a sport; we are in the rare and enviable position of being a sport that can accommodate all ages, all abilities and all backgrounds," added Katherine Henderson, Chief Executive Officer of Curling Canada. "We have much to be proud of after getting through the pandemic season, but there is still work to be done. We will continue to strive to be an organization that reflects the values that make our country great."

Curling Canada also unanimously approved welcoming the Canadian Stick Curling Association as an affiliate member. The CSCA has held national championships since 2004; more information on the organization is available on the CSCA website.

FOR THE LOVE OF CURLING SCHOLARSHIPS FUTURE OF OUR SPORT IN GOOD HANDS

with ambitious plans on and off the ice received financial aid to help make those dreams come true after being named For the Love of Curling scholarship recipients, Curling Canada has announced.

The scholarship program received 61 entries, narrowed down to 11 recipients who will each receive $2,500 to support their educational goals and pursuit of excellence on the curling ice. A selection panel consisting of Curling Canada officials, high-performance athletes and former scholars selected the recipients.

Of those recipients, the Governor General's Curling Club – an honorary society under the patronage of the Governor General since 1874 – selected one deserving candidate to receive a scholarship financially supported by donations from its membership worth $2,500.

“Every year while reviewing these applications I'm reminded that the future of our sport is in terrific hands,” said Curling Canada CEO and selection panel member Katherine Henderson. “The core purpose of this scholarship program is to support young, talented and passionate curlers who will make a difference in society and this year's recipients are no exception. They all exemplify the attributes of leaders in curling and in communities.”

“To be recognized as a For the Love of a Curling Scholar with the generous support of the Governor General's Curling Club is an incredible honour. I am so grateful for the opportunity to join the Governor General's Curling Club's promotion of youth curling in my community and beyond,” said Chantel Hoag. “This award aids in my pursuit of excellence in both curling and my education. In the spirit of inclusion, I would love to use the platform set forth by this scholarship to encourage people of all ages, genders, orientations and backgrounds to participate in the great sport of curling.”

Hoag will be honoured by the Governor General's Curling Club at its Annual Meeting dinner on Sept. 13.

Applicants had to be enrolled full-time for at least two semesters at a Canadian university or college, registered to compete for Canadian Team Ranking System points during the 2021-22 curling season, and 23 years of age or under as of Dec. 31, 2022.

In addition to Henderson, the selection panel included previous scholarship recipients Karsten Sturmey, Mackenzie Zacharias and Nathan Young, high-performance athlete and owner of Dynasty Curling Colin Hodgson and Olympian and six-time Scotties champion Jill Officer.

The Curling Canada philanthropic program, introduced during the 2013-14 season to help develop and grow youth and junior curling across Canada, received donations totaling more than $280,000 last season. Programs such as The Egg Farmers Rocks & Rings presented by Curling Canada, Hit Draw Tap presented by Tim Hortons and For the Love of Curling scholarships are only made possible thanks to the generous support of Canada's curling community.

The 2021-22 scholarship recipients are:

- Ryleigh Bakker – Calgary (University of Calgary, Bachelor of Commerce/Accounting)
- Piper Croisier – Sudbury, Ont. (Laurentian University, Sports Administration, Bachelor of Commerce)
- Calissa Daly – Ottawa (Queen's University, Master of Public Administration)
- Celeste Gauthier – Ottawa (Ryerson University, Graphic Communications Management)
- Jordan McDonald – Winnipeg (University of Manitoba, Engineering)
- Christopher Pratt – Calgary (Carleton University, Bachelor of Global and International Studies [BGInS])
- Michaela Robert – Clarksburg, Ont. (Queen's University, Engineering Physics)
- Carly Smith – Ammon, N.B. (University of New Brunswick, Bachelor of Science, Kinesiology)
- Jamie Smith – Sudbury, Ont. (Wilfrid Laurier University, Financial Mathematics)
- Johnson Tao – Richmond, B.C. (University of Alberta, Bachelor of Commerce)
- The additional For the Love of Curling scholarship, presented by the Governor General's Curling Club, is awarded to Chantel Hoag of Gravelbourg, Sask. (University of Regina, Bachelor of Kinesiology).

THE 2022 OLYMPIC WINTER GAMES

The Beijing National Aquatics Centre, known as the Water Cube, hosted aquatics competitions at the 2008 Summer Olympics and Paralympics. It will be converted to the Ice Cube and host all the curling events at the 2022 Winter Olympics.

CURLING WILL ONCE AGAIN HAVE three medals available at the 2022 Olympic Winter Games next February in Beijing, China.

And in order to determine mixed doubles, women's and men's Olympic champions, the sport is being played over the course of 19 days of competition, which is two extra days that need to be played beginning on the Wednesday before the Opening Ceremony. It will all take place at the National Aquatics Centre, also known as the Water Cube. The venue, which is traditionally used for aquatics events, including at the 2008 Summer Olympics and Paralympics Games, has been renovated to host curling events.

It will be the seventh time that curling has been a full-medal sport, and the 2022 edition kicks off with the mixed doubles competition on Feb. 2 — two days before the official opening ceremony. That competition will conclude with medal games on Tuesday, Feb. 8. The four-player competition for men and women begins the following day and concludes with the men's gold-medal game on Saturday, Feb. 19, and the women's gold-medal game the following day.

The Games officially welcomed curling in July 1992, when the IOC announced that curling would be recognized for the first time as a medal sport at the 1998 Olympic Winter Games in Japan. Curling made its Olympic debut as a full-medal sport in 1998 at Kazakoshi Park Arena in Karuizawa, Japan, about an hour from downtown Nagano.

Curling made its next Olympic appearance in Salt Lake City, Utah, in 2002 at The Ice Sheet arena on the campus of Weber State University in Ogden, Utah, 45 kilometres north of Salt Lake City.

Four years later, in 2006, the Olympic curling competition took place at the Palaghiaccio, a multi-purpose ice arena in Pinerolo, Italy, 35 kilometres southwest of Torino.

Vancouver played host to the 2010 Olympics and the curling events were held at the 5,600-seat Vancouver Olympic/Paralympic Centre.

PHOTOS: HANDOUTS

It will take 19 days of competition in the Beijing National Aquatics Centre to determine the medal winners at the 2022 Winter Olympic Games. The curling competition will start before the actual official Opening Ceremonies.

In 2014, the 3,000-seat Ice Cube Curling Center in Sochi, Russia, hosted the curling competition.

Mixed doubles curling made its debut at the 2018 Olympic Winter Games in Pyeongchang, South Korea at the 3,500-seat Gangneung Curling Centre. It was the first time three medals were awarded in a curling competition at the Olympic Winter Games.

THE ROAD TO BEIJING

The World Curling Federation has 66 member associations, but only 10 women's and men's teams are allowed to participate at the medal level of the 2022 Games in four-player competition. For mixed doubles, there is an increased quota of 10 teams competing at Beijing 2022, compared to eight teams in 2018.

Although Scotland, Wales and England compete individually in the world championships, Great Britain has only one entry in the Olympics. For 2022, only Scotland was nominated to earn Olympic points and qualification on behalf of Great Britain. China, as host nation, has berths in both the men's and women's team competitions, in addition to the mixed doubles event.

Due to the COVID-19 pandemic and the cancellation of the 2020 world championships, all Olympic qualification was determined through the 2021 championships. The six highest-ranked men's and women's teams earned berths to the Olympic Winter Games.

The remaining three men's and women's berths will be determined at a WCF Olympic Qualification Event to be staged Dec. 5-18 at Elfeddenhal in Leeuwarden, Netherlands.

For mixed doubles, the seven highest-ranked teams at the World Mixed Doubles Curling Championship earned spots in the mixed doubles discipline at the Olympic Winter Games.

The final two teams will also be determined at the WCF Olympic Qualification Event taking place in Leeuwarden. ■
