FEDERATION

PRESIDENT
Kate Caithness

Scotland's Kate Caithness is the new president of the World Curling Federation. Elected in April 2010, she is the first female president of the WCF and the first female president of any Olympic winter sports federation.

Caithness has been involved with the sport of curling since the 1980s. As a member of Scotland's Royal Caledonian Curling Club, she went from playing the game to putting something back into the sport in the late 1990s. She served as president of the RCCC Ladies' Branch in 1997-98, then became an RCCC representative to the World Curling Federation.

Since 2000, Caithness has been the driving force behind the WCF's development of wheelchair curling. She was on the team that created the first World Wheelchair Curling Championship and was instrumental in the sport's inclusion at the 2006 Paralympic Winter Games in Turin, Italy.

From 2005 to '09 Caithness was elected to the International Paralympic Committee's five-person Sports' Council Management Committee and she served on the Paralympic Games Committee from 2006 to '09.

Caithness was elected vice-president of the WCF in 2006 and served two two-year terms under former president Les Harrison.

Married and the mother of two sons, Caithness recently became a grandmother. She spends her free time with family and, when she has a chance, curling and playing golf at her home club in Edzell, Angus, where she was the Lady Captain from 2002 to '04.

The World Curling Federation is the recognized governing body of curling in the world.

The WCF's first formal constitution was approved in 1967 under the original charter of the International Curling Federation in Perth, Scotland. The constitution was significantly adjusted in 1982, when the federation was declared independent from Scotland's Royal Caledonian Curling Club, to which its original constitution had been tied. In 1991, the official name was changed to World Curling Federation. Further significant changes were made in 1994.

The WCF has a four-part mandate:

- To represent curling internationally and to facilitate the growth of the sport through a network of member associations
- To formulate rules of the sport of curling for world competition and all other competitions approved by the WCF and to further the interests of world curling
- To conduct world curling competitions
- To provide co-operation and mutual understanding among member associations and to unite curlers throughout the world

CHAMPIONS START SMALL

The Sandra Schmirler Foundation was created as a legacy to three-time world curling champion and Olympic gold medalist Sandra Schmirler. The Foundation raises and donates funds to hospitals across Canada for the care of premature and critically ill babies.

"My daughter Emma was born four months premature weighing 487 grams – that's just one pound one ounce. Doctors told us the odds of survival were between 25 and 50 percent. Today, I'm thrilled to say, Emma is a happy and healthy little girl!"

— Tracy Gushulak, Competitive Curler

Not every child grows up to be a champion like Sandra, but every child deserves a chance to grow up.

Before joining the CCA in 2007, Stremlaw was the CEO and executive director of Chicopee Ski & Summer Resort in Kitchener, Ontario, where he had been employed since 2002. Before that, he was the Calgary Olympic Development Association's (now Winsport) director of sport services for luge and bobsleigh for six years, which included his role as race chairman-race director for numerous international events, including the 2001

VOLUNTEER OF THE YEAR AWARD

John Lavich of Brookdale, Manitoba, is the winner of the 2010 Volunteer of the Year Award in recognition of his significant contribution to the success of the Brookdale Curling Club.

Lavich was president of the Brookdale club when, in late 2008, it became apparent that its building had severe structural problems. The question was whether to close the club or build a new home for it. "We decided to build a new one," says Lavich.

The original two-sheet rink was attached to a community complex that boasted a skating rink, kitchen, viewing area and change rooms. With only 80 people living in Brookdale, located 35 kilometres north of Brandon, Lavich spearheaded a community drive to raise funds, design a new building, process the paper work, oversee the construction and have a new two-sheet facility opened for the 2009-10 curling season.

Brookdale, Manitoba's John Lavich accepts the Volunteer of the Year Award from CCA chair Graham Prouse in recognition of his contribution to his local curling club.

Through his construction business contacts, Lavich hired an architect, oversaw the work of a structural engineer, and got approvals on the architectural drawings and fire safety.

Construction began in June 2009 and the new clubhouse officially opened in October, right on schedule. The new rink complements the previously renovated kitchen and dressing rooms, which, not surprisingly, were both modernized with Lavich's help.

RAY KINGSMITH EXECUTIVE OF THE YEAR AWARD

The Ray Kingsmith Executive of the Year Award is presented annually to the volunteer who best exemplifies the dedication to curling and benevolence demonstrated by Calgary's Ray Kingsmith throughout his life.

Kingsmith was a super volunteer, the kind who doesn't come around very often. He gave freely of himself, his time and his resources to the sport of curling, which he so loved and believed in. He never asked for nor expected anything in return. Kingsmith passed away in 1988.

The award was not presented in 2010.

FORD HOT SHOTS

The Ford Hot Shots celebrated its 16th season at the 2010 Scotties Tournament of Hearts and Tim Hortons Brier.

When the Ford Motor Co. of Canada became part of international curling in 1995 as title sponsor of the Ford World Curling Championships, it introduced an opportunity for Hearts and Brier curlers to participate in individual skills competitions known as the Ford Hot Shots.

Points curling has long been part of the game in most corners of the curling world. While some countries have individual curling competitions, Ford Hot Shots is the first skills competition at major curling events that pits the abilities of championship curlers against one another's.

In each round of competition, each curler delivers six skill-testing shots — hit and stay, draw the button, draw the port, the raise, hit and roll and double takeout.

Each shot is worth a maximum five points, with the final location of the shooter being valued as follows: button — 5 points, four-foot circle — 4 points, eight-foot circle — 3 points, 12-foot circle — 2 points. On each shot a single point is awarded if the shot has been missed on the professional side or is deemed to have provided some sort of positive result.

The 2010 Scotties Tournament of Hearts and Tim Hortons Brier Hot Shots winners were awarded two-year leases on new Ford Taurus SEL FWDs, each valued in excess of $25,000. Runners-up received $2,000 and third-place finishers were awarded $1,000.

Ontario's Rachel Homan, Emma Misckew, Laura Crocker and Lynn Kreviazuk capped an undefeated run — the first since 1989 — with a 9-5 win over British Columbia's Dailene Sivertson to capture the 2010 Canadian junior women's title. It was sweet revenge for Homan, Misckew and Kreviazuk who lost the final to Manitoba a year earlier.

JOAN MEAD LEGACY AWARD

Prince Edward Island third Michelle McQuaid and Alberta front-enders Landon and Bryce Bucholz are the 2010 winners of the Joan Mead Legacy Award.

Mead was the CBC's curling producer for many years and produced its curling coverage at the 1998 Olympic Winter Games in Nagano, Japan. After she died suddenly in January 2000, the CBC Legacy Award was re-named in her memory and in honour of the great work she had done for curling on behalf of the CBC.

The awards began after the CBC was presented with the Golden Rings Award by the International Olympic Association for its excellence in broadcasting curling from the Nagano games. CBC decided to fund an annual award for junior curlers in Canada as an ongoing legacy of the Golden Rings Award and established the CBC Legacy Awards.

The 2010 Scotties Tournament of Hearts champions: from left, Team Canada skip Jennifer Jones, third Cathy Overton-Clapham, second Jill Officer and lead Dawn Askin. After bowing 9-5 to P.E.I. in the round robin, Team Canada responded with an 8-5 effort in the Page 1-2 game and an 8-7 come-from-behind win in the final.

Jennifer Jones needed an extra end to do it, but the Team Canada skip defeated P.E.I. to win her third consecutive Hearts title.

SCOTTIES TOURNAMENT OF HEARTS BUILDERS AWARD

Presented in the name of Joan Mead, the 2010 Builders Award was presented to Ottawa's Anne Merklinger for her significant contribution to the growth and development of women's curling in Canada. A four-time Ontario champion and two-time Hearts runner-up, Merklinger is a huge Hearts supporter and super volunteer.

Erin Carmody — who throws last rocks for P.E.I. — shot a red-hot 93 per cent against Ontario in the semi to earn a spot in the final.

MARJ MITCHELL AWARD

British Columbia skip Kelly Scott won the Marj Mitchell Award for best embodying the spirit of curling at the 2010 Scotties Tournament of Hearts.

The award is named in memory of Marj Mitchell, who skipped Canada to its first world title in 1980. In 1983, shortly after the second Hearts, Mitchell died of cancer at the age of 35.

The winner is selected each year in a vote by all players at the tournament.

Kruger Products' Wendy Mommersteeg, left, presents Ontario's Krista McCarville with the Shot-Of-The-Week Award.

Shot-Of-The-Week Award went to Ontario skip Krista McCarville.

It was the second end of a tiebreaker game between Ontario and Manitoba's Jill Thurston.

McCarville executed an intricate last-rock runback, literally papering one of her own stones, and erasing a Manitoba counter to score three after a blank opener.

The call was a risky one for McCarville and deflating for Thurston's team, who never recovered, eventually losing 10-3.

SHOT-OF-THE-WEEK AWARD

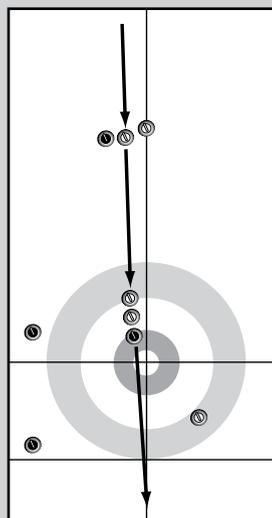

John Deere's Jennifer Christie presents the 2010 Shot-Of-The-Week Award to Ontario third Richard Hart.

The Shot-Of-The-Week Award, for executing the most outstanding shot in the 2010 Tim Hortons Brier, went to Ontario third Richard Hart.

It was the sixth end of the Page 1-2 game between Ontario and Northern Ontario's Brad Jacobs. One down without hammer when he went to throw his final stone, Hart executed a delicate raise takeout through a seemingly impossible port between two guards that was scarcely bigger than the width of the rock, to lie three. Northern Ontario would be held to a single point in the end but Ontario would go on to win the game 8-6 to advance to the Brier final.

Torger Nergård skipped Norway to a first-place 10-1 round-robin record when he stepped in for Thomas Ulsrud, who had to return home due to a family illness.

Canada's Nolan Thiessen, Blake MacDonald, Carter Rycroft and Kevin Koe discuss their next move during the gold-medal match. After suffering a tough 9-8 loss to Norway in the round robin, Canada rebounded with an 11-5 win in the Page 1-2 game before administering an emphatic 9-3 thrashing in the championship final.

Norway's Torger Nergård and Thomas Løvold are all eyes during their round-robin meeting, as Canada's Kevin Koe looks to bury another rock behind cover.

Ivo Lorenzi, past president of the Cortina Curling Association, presents the 2010 Colin Campbell sportsmanship award to Norway's Torger Nergård.

THANKS FOR THE MEMORIES

The curling community will always remember the lives of five great champions of the sport who died recently. Each played an integral role and made significant contributions to curling in Canada and worldwide.

SANDRA MULRONEY

Three-time Scotties Tournament of Hearts competitor Sandra Mulroney passed away on September 20, 2009, at her home in Pancake Bay, Ontario, after a long battle with cancer. She was 45.

Born in Sault Ste. Marie, Mulroney earned a bachelor of science degree in occupational therapy from Queen's University in Kingston, Ontario, in 1987, and began a 20-year career as an occupational therapist at Sault Ste. Marie General Hospital.

Sault Ste. Marie was set to host the 1990 Labatt Brier and in preparation, Mulroney travelled with a host committee delegation to Saskatoon — site of the 1989 Brier — to observe the operation. It was there that Mulroney met the love of her life, Terry Laughren, who was president of the Brier host committee. She moved to Saskatoon later that year and married Laughren in 1995.

It was in Saskatoon that Mulroney's curling career blossomed. She played second for Sherry Scheirich (later Middaugh), who won the 1996 provincial title to advance to the Hearts in Thunder Bay, Ontario, where they lost in the Page System 3-4 playoff match.

The team qualified for the 1997 Olympic Curling Trials in Brandon, Manitoba, but finished out of the playoffs.

When Scheirich moved to Toronto, Mulroney joined veteran skip Sherry Anderson of Delisle, Saskatchewan. During the next 10 years, the Anderson team enjoyed much success and represented Saskatchewan at the Hearts in 2002 and '04.

In 2001, they lost the Canadian Curling Trials championship final to Kelley Law of New Westminster, British Columbia. A few months later, the team reached the final of the 2002 Hearts in Brandon, only to come up short against Team Canada's Colleen Jones.

They made it back to the Hearts in 2004, in Red Deer, Alberta, but lost in a tiebreaker.

Mulroney is among a small group of curlers to have participated in Olympic trials in 1997, 2001 and '05.

MICHAEL BURNS SR.

Curling's most renowned photographer, Michael Burns, passed away on February 8, 2010, after a short battle with cancer. He was 84.

Burns joined the curling fraternity in the 1960s, when he shot the official photos of the Scotch Cup, the event that marked the beginning of world curling.

He was, however, best known for his thoroughbred photography. Burns had been the official lensman for the Ontario Jockey Club (Woodbine Entertainment Group) in Toronto since 1956.

His career began back in the early 1940s with Toronto's Turofsky Photos covering the National Hockey League at Maple Leaf Gardens.

Motorsports also played a major role in his career. Burns shot the racing circuit when Mosport International Raceway (formerly Mosport Park) opened north of Bowmanville, Ontario, in 1961, as well as Indy and Formula One racing in eastern Canada.

Capturing images of more than 30 different sports in an illustrious career that spanned more than 60 years, Burns made a significant donation of more than 30,000 negatives to Canada's Sports

Hall of Fame. The photos can be seen by visiting the website at www.sportshall.ca.

Burns was a member of the Canadian Horse Racing Hall of Fame, Canada's Curling Hall of Fame and the Etobicoke Sports Hall of Fame.

AL FORSYTHE

A former Canadian Curling Association president, Al Forsythe passed away on March 5, 2010, after a short battle with cancer. He was 71.

A resident of Moncton, New Brunswick, Forsythe began his curling administration career in 1979 as president of the Moncton Curlers Association and moved to the provincial level in 1990 as zone director. He was elected third vice-president of the New Brunswick Curling Association in 1997 and served as president in 2000-01. After attending a number of national curling congresses as an observer and New Brunswick delegate, Forsythe was elected to the CCA's board of directors in 2003 and was president in 2007-08.

Over the years, Forsythe worked on a number of local committees, including the 1980 Silver Broom, 1985 Brier, the 1990 Moncton 100 Bonspiel and the 2000 Canadian Juniors. He was a certified Level II coach, Level II ice technician and Level II official.

MEL PERRY

Mel Perry, who played lead on the 1963 Canadian and world championship-winning team with the renowned Richardson clan, died on May 12, 2010, in his home town of Regina. He was 75.

Perry joined the Richardsons for the 1963 season when Wes Richardson was sidelined after undergoing back surgery. The Richardsons — Ernie, Arnold and Sam — and Perry enjoyed one of the most dominant seasons in men's curling history en route to claiming the Canadian and world titles.

The 1963 championship marked the fourth world title in five years for Ernie, Arnold and Sam.

Perry is the first member of the legendary Richardson crew to pass away. Ernie is 78, Arnold 80, Sam is 76 and Wes is 79.

GÜNTHER HUMMELT

Former World Curling Federation president Günther Hummelt died on July 3, 2010, at the age of 78.

Born in Innsbruck, Austria, Hummelt enjoyed dual

Austrian-German citizenship. His initial contact with curling was at Kitzbühel, in 1959. He helped found a number of clubs in Austria and Munich and was president of the Austrian Curling Association from 1980 until his death. He became vice-president of the WCF in 1988 and served as president from 1990 to 2000.

Hummelt holds an extraordinary record in world curling: He was a member of teams representing two nations that were competing for the first time at the world championship level. In 1967, he was vice-skip for David Lampl's team when Germany made its debut in world curling in Perth, Scotland. Then, in 1984, he was a substitute for Austria's first world championship team in Duluth, Minnesota.

The WCF development committee was formed in 1988 and Hummelt became its first chairman, with the major task of acquiring Olympic Winter Games medal status for curling. It was largely thanks to his dedicated efforts that curling finally became an Olympic medal sport on July 21, 1992.

Canadian Curling Association chair Graham Prouse, left, presents the 2010 Scotty Harper Award for the year's best curling story to Globe And Mail and Ontario Curling Report writer Bob Weeks.

Scotty Harper Award

Bob Weeks, a Globe And Mail and Ontario Curling Report writer, is the 2010 winner of the Scotty Harper Award for the year's best curling story.

Weeks' story Gentle Giant Plans To Rock Paralympics was chosen as the winner by the faculty of the School of Journalism and Communication at Carlton University in Ottawa.

The award is named for the late Scotty Harper, whose curling reports in the Winnipeg Free Press enlivened the paper for many years. Not awarded for a number of years, it was re-introduced in 2005 with the assistance of the Canadian Curling Association.

Paul McLean Award

Robin Wilson, who was for 29 years the Scotties Tournament of Hearts' media co-ordinator and liaison to the event's sponsor, Kruger Products (formerly Scott Paper Limited), is the 2010 winner of the Paul McLean Award.

The award was created in 2007 by the Canadian Curling Reporters, in conjunction with TSN, in memory of McLean, a TSN executive producer, and his dedication to the sport of curling. McLean passed away on December 14, 2005, at his home in Brampton, Ontario, after a two-year battle with cancer. He was 39.

ING REPORTERS

The award is presented annually to a person in the media who has made an outstanding contribution to the sport of curling from behind the scenes.

Wilson brought Scott Paper Limited on board as sponsor of the Canadian Women's Curling Championship in 1981 and was instrumental in building it into the premier women's sporting event in Canada and establishing the now-renamed Kruger Products as the longest corporate sponsor of amateur sport in Canada.

An accomplished curler, Wilson played second for North Vancouver's Lindsay Sparkes, winning the Macdonald Lassie in 1976 and '79. Representing Canada at the inaugural World Women's Curling Championship in Perth, Scotland, in 1979, Sparkes' foursome was sidelined by eventual champion Switzerland in the semifinal.

2009-10 AGM IN BRIEF...

Another curling season completed, another financial success for the Canadian game's governing body, and another year of excellence on the international stage.

That was the assessment of the past year from the Canadian Curling Association's Annual General Meeting held in Gatineau, Quebec, in June.

For a third straight year, the CCA finished the fiscal year in the black and with a positive financial outlook. Far exceeding projections, the surplus for 2009-10 was $853,044, bringing the total accumulated surplus to $2,556,996. Most of the surplus has been allocated to the CCA's recently established long-term reserve fund.

"This has been a truly remarkable and successful year," said Greg Stremelaw, the CCA's chief executive officer. "Not only are we pleased to report a third consecutive financial surplus, but competitively, Canada reached the international podium 11 out of 11 times. We also enjoyed the highest television numbers in our history, we had the jubilation of hosting the Olympics and Paralympics on home soil, and we were thrilled with the success of our teams in Vancouver.

"In addition, this year's National Curling Congress and AGM established a landmark decision. After years of debate and various efforts, I am very proud to announce that the CCA's membership endorsed a presentation by senior staff that will see each of our member associations have an equitable opportunity to access the CCA's national championships in the years ahead. This is long overdue and will provide a fair platform for all, as it will be built on performance-based criteria for each member association to qualify for the final field of 12 teams in each championship."

In other news...

A new CCA rulebook was approved and will be in effect for the next two years.

A number of housekeeping changes were approved, many of which will bring the CCA in line, as much as possible, with the rules of the World Curling Federation. The major adjustment that will impact all of the CCA's championships in 2010-11 will see the elimination of time outs. Instead, each team will have two coaching time periods of one minute but the game clock of the team that called time will continue to run. Each team will be allocated a similar coaching time period during an extra end.

The qualifying process for the 2014 Olympic Winter Games in Sochi, Russia, was presented — in general principle — with the major change being that the process is being trimmed from three years to two. Pre-trials will be followed by eight men's and eight women's teams trials — similar to what was done for the 2010 Olympics.

Bronze-medal games will be introduced at the 2011 Scotties Tournament of Hearts and Tim Hortons Brier. The loser of the Page 3-4 playoff game will face the semifinal loser for the bronze medal.

Last year's AGM asked the CCA senior staff to bring a proposal to the 2010 AGM for a system that would afford all 14 CCA member associations an equal opportunity to participate in the Canadian mixed and senior women's and men's championships in 2012. The proposal was accepted and, with some minor adjustments, resulted in the following:

- The 2012 Canadian mixed will be played with all member associations having the right to send a team to compete in the inaugural qualification. The 14-team round robin will be for one year only, and is subject to the agreement of the host club. (The host Sudbury Curling Club has since agreed.) The competition returns to a 12-team round robin format in 2013. Further details on the qualification system are still to be confirmed.

- The 2012 Canadian seniors will continue in its present format — 12 men's and 12 women's teams. However, all of the CCA's 14 member associations will have an opportunity to qualify for the championships. Further details are still to come.

Victoria's Jack Bowman was elected association chair for 2010-11 and Laura Lochanski of Edmonton, vice-chair.

After serving five-year terms, Fran Todd of Mississauga, Ontario, and Graham Prouse of Fort Nelson, British Columbia, retired from the board.

Newcomers include Marilyn Neily of Iqaluit, Nunavut, and Halifax's Hugh Avery.

The 2011 NCC and AGM will be held in the Ottawa area from June 16 to 18.
