FEDERATION

PRESIDENT Kate Caithness

In April 2010, Scotland's Kate Caithness was elected president of the World Curling Federation. She is the first female president of the WCF and the first female president of any Olympic winter sports federation.

Caithness has been involved with the sport of curling since the 1980s. As a member of Scotland's Royal Caledonian Curling Club, she went from playing the game to putting something back into the sport in the late 1990s. She served as president of the RCCC Ladies' Branch in 1997-98, then became an RCCC representative to the World Curling Federation.

Since 2000, Caithness has been the driving force behind the WCF's development of wheelchair curling. She was on the team that created the first World Wheelchair Curling Championship and was instrumental in the sport's inclusion at the 2006 Paralympic Winter Games in Turin, Italy.

From 2005 to '09 Caithness was elected to the International Paralympic Committee's five-person Sports' Council Management Committee and she served on the Paralympic Games Committee from 2006 to '09.

Caithness was elected vice-president of the WCF in 2006 and served two two-year terms under former president Les Harrison.

Married and the mother of two sons, Caithness became a grandmother in 2008. She spends her free time with family and, when she has a chance, curling and playing golf at her home club in Edzell, Angus, where she was the Lady Captain from 2002 to '04.

The World Curling Federation is the recognized governing body of curling in the world.

The WCF's first formal constitution was approved in 1967 under the original charter of the International Curling Federation in Perth, Scotland. The constitution was significantly adjusted in 1982, when the federation was declared independent from Scotland's Royal Caledonian Curling Club, to which its original constitution had been tied. In 1991, the official name was changed to World Curling Federation. Further significant changes were made in 1994.

The WCF has a four-part mandate:

- To represent curling internationally and to facilitate the growth of the sport through a network of member associations
- To formulate rules of the sport of curling for world competition and all other competitions approved by the WCF and to further the interests of world curling
- To conduct world curling competitions
- To provide co-operation and mutual understanding among member associations and to unite curlers throughout the world

CANADIAN CURLING ASSOCIATION BOARD OF GOVERNORS

CHAIR

Laura Lochanski

The new chair of the Canadian Curling Association's board of governors is Laura Lochanski of Edmonton, who will also serve as a member of the CCA International Committee.

Lochanski was president of the Northern Alberta Curling Association and of the Alberta Curling Federation before being elected to the CCA board in 2008. She first served the sport in Alberta as a director and president of Edmonton's Granite Curling Club.

A curler of note, Lochanski has played in women's and mixed championships at the local, regional and provincial level and has dedicated many hours as an organizer for a number of events, including the 2002 Alberta juvenile championship, '03 Alberta men's, '04 Alberta seniors, '07 Ford World Men's and the '09 Tim Hortons Roar of the Rings Canadian Curling Trials.

Lochanski served for four years as a systems co-ordinator for the City of Grande Prairie, 17 years as an IT manager-systems analyst for Alberta Blue Cross, two years as the director of project management for Alberta Pensions Administration and she has been the director of IT infrastructure services for the past four years with her current employer, Capital Health.

Lochanski's volunteer work has not been limited to curling. Over the years she has donated much of her time to organized softball and lawn bowling, in which she has competed at both the provincial and national level.

CCA ADMINISTRATION

The Canadian Curling Association's head office is located in Cumberland, Ontario, at 1660 Vimont Court. The administration unit has a resident staff of 12, headed by chief executive officer Greg Stremlaw. In addition, the CCA retains Warren Hansen under contract from his office in Vancouver as director of event operations and media, and Paul Webster, the national development coach, works from the National Training Centre in Calgary. The CCA has numerous event offices across the country and several dozen contractees who help administrate and manage the organization in support of the national office. It also retains a local marketing office and personnel in Winnipeg and a national marketing office and personnel in Toronto.

CEO Greg Stremlaw

Greg Stremlaw works out of the CCA's national office in Cumberland, Ontario, and has just completed his fourth year as chief executive officer.

Before joining the CCA in 2007, Stremlaw was the CEO and executive director of Chicopee Ski & Summer Resort in Kitchener, Ontario, where he had been employed since 2002. Before that, he was for six years director of sport services for luge and bobsleigh for the Calgary Olympic Development Association (now WinSport Canada), which included his role as race chairman/race director for numerous international events, including the 1999 Viessmann Luge World Cup, the 2001 Skeleton World Championship and Women's Bobsleigh Championship.

He holds a master's degree in sports management from the University of Miami in Coral Gables, Florida, a master's of business administration from the University of Maine in Orono, Maine, and a bachelor of arts in commerce from the University of Western Ontario in London, Ontario.

Stremlaw's board experience includes the Canadian Ski Council, KidsAbility Centre For Child Development and the Conestoga College Program Advisory Committee. He is an international delegate to the World Curling Federation, a member of the Sandra Schmirler Foundation Advisory Board — which raises funds for neonatal intensive-care units across Canada — and a Canadian Olympic Committee session member.

An athlete of note, Stremlaw has been active in many sports, including soccer and track and field, and was a member of the United States hockey team program.

Married to Wendy, Stremlaw has two children, Kristin and Michael. The family leads an active lifestyle that includes coaching and participating in competitive soccer, baseball, hockey and synchronized swimming.

No matter where I compete, I can hear them cheer.

For Canadian athletes, staying connected to teammates, friends, and family is important. The Bell Athletes Connect program provides 2 000 Canadian athletes every year with smartphones, like the Samsung Galaxy S Vibrant on Canada's best network. Our athletes can stay connected, helping them feel close to home wherever they compete.

CANADIAN CURLING ASSOCIATION AWARDS

VOLUNTEER OF THE YEAR AWARD

Brian Recksiedler of Morris, Manitoba, is the winner of the 2011 Volunteer of the Year Award in recognition of his significant contribution to the success of the Morris Curling Club.

During this past year, while serving as club president, Recksiedler played a key role in two major events.

He served as a co-chair of the DEKALB SuperSpiel and directed both the facilities and entries committees. His efforts helped establish the bonspiel as a major late-season event not only for teams from Manitoba but from across Canada and internationally.

Recksiedler also played a vital role in discussions with the Canadian Curling Association to bring the Canadian Mixed Curling Championship to Morris. Recognizing that the Morris Curling Club might not have the expertise needed to chair the event, he recruited former resident and Curl Manitoba executive member Resby Coutts to act as co-chair. Recksiedler also served on the executive committee as the facilities chair.

During his time as club president, Recksiedler has been tireless in his efforts to keep the 100-member club alive. From his roles in the club's major events to helping with ice installation and even bartending, Recksiedler can always be found doing more than his share of the volunteer work.

RAY KINGSMITH EXECUTIVE OF THE YEAR AWARD

The Ray Kingsmith Executive of the Year Award is presented annually to the volunteer who best exemplifies the dedication to curling and benevolence demonstrated by Calgary's Ray Kingsmith throughout his life.

Kingsmith was a super volunteer, the kind who doesn't come around very often. He gave freely of himself, his time and his resources to the sport of curling, which he so loved and believed in. He never asked for nor expected anything in return. Kingsmith passed away in 1988.

The award was not presented in 2011.

FORD HOT SHOTS

The Ford Hot Shots celebrated its 17th season at the 2011 Scotties Tournament of Hearts and Tim Hortons Brier.

When the Ford Motor Co. of Canada became part of international curling in 1995 as title sponsor of the Ford World Curling Championships, it introduced an opportunity for Hearts and Brier curlers to participate in individual skills competitions known as the Ford Hot Shots.

Points curling has long been part of the game in most corners of the curling world. While some countries have individual curling competitions, Ford Hot Shots is the first skills competition at major curling events that pits the abilities of championship curlers against one another's.

In each round of competition, each curler delivers six skill-testing shots — hit and stay, draw the button, draw the port, the raise, hit and roll and double takeout.

Each shot is worth a maximum five points, with the final location of the shooter being valued as follows: button — 5 points, four-foot circle — 4 points, eight-foot circle — 3 points, 12-foot circle — 2 points. On each shot a single point is awarded if the shot has been missed on the professional side or is deemed to have provided some sort of positive result.

The 2011 Scotties Tournament of Hearts and Tim Hortons Brier Hot Shots winners were awarded two-year leases on 2011 Ford Edge SEL FWDs, each valued at approximately $22,000. Runners-up received $2,000 and third-place finishers were awarded $1,000.

WORLD FINANCIAL GROUP CONTINENTAL CUP

Presented by Monsanto Canada Inc.

Played in St. Albert, Alberta, at Servus Credit Union Place
January 13 to 16, 2011

A jubilant Team North America celebrates after winning the 2011 World Financial Group Continental Cup. The final score — the widest margin of victory in the event's history — was Team North America 298, Team World 102. The competition includes mixed doubles, singles, men's and women's team games, and mixed, men's and women's skins.

FINAL SCORE

Team World	102
Team North America	298

The Continental Cup brought together 12 of the best curling teams in the world — six representing Team World, six representing Team North America — facing off in a unique competition in January 2011 in St. Albert, Alberta.

A total of 400 points was available from the competition's four events — mixed doubles, singles, team and skins. When the competition was completed, Team North America was declared the winner with 298 points and awarded the Continental Cup trophy.

MIXED DOUBLES

Each side picked six doubles teams. A doubles team consists of two throwers — one man and one woman — who also provided the sweeping.

Points

A total of six points was awarded for each doubles game won. In the case of a tie, each team received three points. Six games were played and a total of 36 points awarded.

Rules

- Scoring was counted as in normal curling.
- Each game was eight ends. Ties were not broken.
- Each team was given 48 minutes per game.
- Each team threw five rocks per end. The player delivering the first rock of each end also delivered the last rock of the end; the player throwing the second rock delivered the third and fourth rocks of each end. This rotation could change from end to end and was simply determined by the player who delivered the first rock of each end.

- No rock could be removed from play until after the third rock of each end and any rocks it may have displaced came to rest.
- Two stationary rocks were positioned by the officials at the start of each end. One rock bisected the centre line, approximately eight feet in front of the house (the exact position of this rock was determined by the chief umpire before the competition, depending on ice conditions); the other was positioned at the back of the button so that it bisected the centre line and touched the tee.
- Before the start of each end, one team had an option. The team with the option had its choice of having its rock placed as a guard or having the rock positioned in the house behind the button. If the guard was chosen, the opponent's rock was positioned in the house or vice versa.
- The team with the rock out front as a guard delivered first and the team with the rock in the house delivered second (had last rock in the end).
- After the first end, the team that lost the previous end had the option.
- If an end was blanked, the team that blanked forfeited the option for the next end.

Team North America captain Neil Harrison, left, and coach Rick Lang hoist the Continental Cup trophy. North America now leads the series 4-3.

It's hugs and high fives all around after final-end victories in three 30-point skins games pushed Team North America past the 201 points needed to clinch the Continental Cup title with a day of play still to go. "We just set the tone the very first day when we dominated, got some confidence and picked up a roll," said North America coach Rick Lang.

Team World skips, from left, David Murdoch, Bingyu Wang, Niklas Edin, Mirjam Ott, Thomas Ulsrud and Andrea Schöpp. "They were a lot better than us, we just have to accept that," said Team World coach Peja Lindholm after Team North America handed them a humbling loss. "We just didn't perform as well as I know we can."

SINGLES COMPETITION

All of the teams participated in the six singles matches. The competition included six skill-testing shots and each player on each team threw at least one but not more than two shots. The other team members from each side acted as sweepers or skips.

Points

The winner of each game earned four points. Two points were awarded to each side in the event of a tie. A total of six singles games were played, so the total points awarded was 24. Eight bonus points were awarded to the side with the highest aggregate score, meaning the greatest number of points from all the shots played by that side. A total of 32 points was available for singles.

Run-through

A rock was positioned at the back of the button so that it bisected the centre line and touched the tee. A second rock was positioned four feet in front of the house, also bisecting the centre line. The thrower attempted to hit the front rock and raise it onto the one at the back of the button, removing it from play. Points were awarded as follows:

Raise, hit and stay on the button	5
Raise, hit and stay in the four-foot	4
Raise, hit and stay in the eight-foot	3
Raise, hit and stay in the 12-foot	2
Raise, hit and roll out of the rings	1

The thrower attempted to throw a rock to the button. Points were awarded as follows:

Draw the button	5
Draw the four-foot	4
Draw the eight-foot	3
Draw the 12-foot	2
Draw the free guard zone	1

Draw the port

Using either an in-turn or out-turn, the thrower attempted to draw a rock to the button through a port between two short stones. If the played rock touched either of the stationary rocks as it attempted to pass by, no points were awarded. Points were awarded as follows:

Draw the button	5
Draw the four-foot	4
Draw the eight-foot	3
Draw the 12-foot	2
Draw the free guard zone area and be clearly past the two stationary stones	1

Raise

The thrower attempted to raise a stationary rock, which was positioned on the centre line in front of the house, into the house. Points were awarded as follows:

Raise the rock to any portion of the button.	5
Raise the rock to any portion of the four-foot.	4
Raise the rock to any portion of the eight-foot.	3
Raise the rock to any portion of the 12-foot.	2
Raise the rock forward so there is space between the two stones and the raised rock is still in play	1

Hit and roll

The thrower attempted to hit a stationary rock on the outside of the 12-foot circle and roll toward the button. Points were awarded as follows:

Hit and roll to the button	5
Hit and roll to the four-foot	4
Hit and roll to the eight-foot	3
Hit and roll to the 12-foot	2
Remove the stationary rock from play and have the shooter roll out of the rings.	1

Double takeout

The thrower attempted a double takeout. The thrower had to knock both of the stationary rocks out of the house. Points were awarded as follows:

Make the double and have the shooter stop touching the button	5
Make the double and have the shooter stop touching the four-foot	4
Make the double and have the shooter stop touching the eight-foot	3

SKINS COMPETITION

Aggressive strategy combined with exceptional shot-making was the highlight of this final battle for points. Each gender played three skins games but the points value varied from game to game. Two mixed skins games were also played.

Points

A total of 260 skins points was available. The men's, women's and mixed Game A were worth 20 points each. The men's, women's and mixed Game B were worth 30 points each. The men's and women's Game C were worth 55 points each.

Rules

- Each game consisted of eight ends.
- Each team was allocated 64 minutes per game.

If a team exceeded the allotted time, the game was stopped. Each team retained the points already earned in the game and the remaining points were forfeited to the non-violating team.

- Each end was referred to as a skin. To count a skin when a team had last rock, it had to count at least two points. When a team didn't have last rock, it had to steal at least one point to count a skin.

- If a team scored only one point when it had last rock, it not only lost the hammer, but the end was carried over, which meant the points at stake were carried over to the next end.

- If an end was blanked, a carryover took place and the team that blanked the end forfeited last rock to its opponent.

- If the final end of a skins game resulted in a carryover, the two teams determined who would claim the carryover points by selecting a player from each team to deliver one rock to the button with sweeping. The team that had last rock in the last end shot first.

- The mixed skins lineups had to include two players named to compete in the 20-point, two in the 30-point and four in the 55-point skins games.

Canadian Curling Association chair Jack Bowman presents the Joan Mead Legacy Award to Newfoundland/Labrador lead Tara O'Brien.

JOAN MEAD LEGACY AWARD

Newfoundland/Labrador third Tara O'Brien and Nova Scotia lead Andrew Komlodi are the 2011 winners of the Joan Mead Legacy Award.

Mead was the CBC's curling producer for many years and produced its curling coverage at the 1998 Olympic Winter Games in Nagano, Japan. After she died suddenly in January 2000, the CBC Legacy Award was renamed in her memory and in honour of the great work she had done for curling on behalf of the CBC.

The awards began after the CBC was presented with the Golden Rings Award by the International Olympic Association for its excellence in broadcasting curling from the Nagano games. CBC decided to fund an annual award for junior curlers in Canada as an ongoing legacy of the Golden Rings Award and established the CBC Legacy Awards.

The 2011 first-team all-stars: from left, Manitoba lead Krysten Karwacki, second Jessie Scheidegger, third Rebecca Pattison and skip Nadine Chyz, all of Alberta.

SHOT-OF-THE-WEEK AWARD

PMA Canada's Chris Staresinic presents the 2011 Shot-Of-The-Week Award to Manitoba skip Jeff Stoughton.

The Shot-Of-The-Week Award, for executing the most outstanding shot in the 2011 Tim Hortons Brier, went to Manitoba skip Jeff Stoughton.

It was the fifth end of Draw Seven between Manitoba and Northern Ontario's Brad Jacobs. One up without hammer when Stoughton went to throw his final stone, Northern Ontario was sitting two, almost fully buried by a long

Manitoba guard. With few options available, Stoughton executed a double raise takeout, holding Northern Ontario to a single point. Manitoba would go on to win the game 8-4.

His face says it all! Needing to score two to tie, Scotland's Tom Brewster overthrew his rock and rolled out, giving Canada hammer and a one-point lead in the 10th.

Let the celebrations begin! Sweden's Niklas Edin made a near-perfect draw, grabbing a piece of the button in the 10th end to edge Norway's Thomas Ulsrud 7-6 in the bronze-medal game. The win ended a seven-year medal drought for the Swedes, who rebounded from losses to Norway in the round robin and the Page 3-4 playoff.

Scotland's Tom Brewster, standing, was hoping his third crack at Canada's Jeff Stoughton would result in a gold medal, but a mistake in the ninth end led to a 6-5 loss.

Your Dreams, Our Strategies®

Isn't It Time You Started Dreaming Again?

Most dreams in life require having the money to achieve them – buying a new home or car, taking the trip of a lifetime, sending children to college, or retiring in comfort. But skyrocketing costs, mountains of debt, lack of savings and a lack of understanding about how money works have forced many people to downsize or even eliminate their dreams.

At World Financial Group (WFG), we believe you shouldn't have to compromise your dreams. Instead, we use a practical approach to finances, one that incorporates powerful financial concepts and programs to provide you with the information and tools needed to make smart choices. The result is a strategy to help you move from dreaming to doing.

World Financial Group is a financial services marketing organization whose affiliates offer life insurance and a broad array of financial products and services.

THANKS FOR THE MEMORIES

The curling community will always remember three great champions of the sport who died recently. Each played an integral role and made significant contributions to curling in Canada and worldwide.

WES RICHARDSON

Wes Richardson, who played lead on the 1959, '60 and '62 Canadian and world championship-winning team with the renowned Richardson clan, died on April 16, 2011, after a long battle with cancer. He was 81.

The Regina-based Richardsons — Ernie at skip, his brother Garnet (Sam) at second, cousin Arnold at third and cousin Wes at lead — won Saskatchewan men's curling championships in 1959, '60, '61, '62 and '64. The team also won the provincial crown, Canadian and world title in 1963 with Mel Perry at lead when Wes was sidelined after undergoing back surgery.

After working at an oil refinery in Regina, Wes moved to Hawaii and worked at a refinery there until his retirement in 1992.

The Richardson team was inducted into Canada's Sports Hall of Fame in 1968, and the Saskatchewan Sports Hall of Fame and Canadian Curling Hall of Fame in 1973.

Wes is the second team member to pass away; Perry died in May 2010 at the age of 75.

JOHN (JACK) MATHESON

One of Canada's best-known sports writers, Jack Matheson passed away on January 24, 2011, at Grace Hospital in Winnipeg, as a result of kidney disease. He was 86.

Known as Matty by the Canada-wide sports fraternity, Matheson loved to write about curling and the Brier was one of his favourite events.

For many years, he covered curling and football as sports editor for the Winnipeg Tribune before switching gears and joining CJOB radio, where he was already well known for his fiery commentaries. If you gave Matheson a sports topic and a deadline, he could craft a story, always interesting, often biting.

He covered the Blue Bombers and when the football games ended, he spent his winters around curling rinks, telling tales of Don Duguid, Barry Fry, Orest Meleshuk and many more.

Matheson received a number of tributes during his career, some of them bestowed by the sport of curling. He was a member of the Canadian Curling Hall of Fame and won the Scotty Harper Award for the best national curling story four times.

In 2002, the Manitoba Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association created the Jack Matheson Award, given annually to students pursuing a career in sports communications.

PETER MACPHEE

Nova Scotia curling icon Peter MacPhee of Dartmouth passed away suddenly on January 25, 2011, at the age of 64.

A gifted athlete, MacPhee excelled in hockey, baseball, fastball and football but nothing equalled his success and contribution to the sport of curling. He was a six-time Nova Scotia men's curling champion, two-time senior men's champion and twice the provincial masters champ. He played third in all 10 national appearances.

MacPhee was a former president of the Dartmouth Curling Club and member of the board of the Brightwood Golf and Country Club. Known for his organizing skills and passion for curling, he was ice chairman for the 2010 Tim Hortons Brier in Halifax. He was also part of the organizing committee for the 2003 Brier.

MacPhee was the first male inductee as an individual into the Nova Scotia Curling Hall of Fame in 2007.

CANADIAN CURLING HALL OF FAME

Nominations to the Canadian Curling Hall of Fame are submitted to the hall selection committee, which meets annually to select inductees it feels meet the criteria in one of six categories — curler, team, builder, curler/builder, builder/media and executive honour roll.

CANADIAN CURLING HALL OF FAME INDUCTEE

JACK BOWMAN Executive Honour Roll

A resident of Victoria, Jack Bowman was executive director of the Pacific Coast Curling Association and Curl BC's competition director before being elected to the Canadian Curling Association board of governors. He first served the sport in British Columbia as a club representative to the PCCA in 1997 and spent two terms as president, in 2001 and '02.

Elected to the CCA's board in 2006, Bowman served as chair of the Finance and Audit Committee and of the Appointment Recommendation Committee and was a member of the Governance Joint Working Committee. In addition to being association chair in 2011, Bowman was a member of the CCA International Committee.

An avid curler, Bowman has played in senior men's and masters' championships at regional and provincial levels on several occasions and has dedicated many hours as a seminar facilitator for the CCA's Business Of Curling program.

Scotty Harper Award

Jim Henderson of Sweep! magazine is the winner — for the third time — of the Scotty Harper Award for the year's best curling story.

Henderson's story Fandemonium At The VOC was chosen as the winner by the faculty of the School of Journalism and Communication at Carlton University in Ottawa.

The award is named for the late Scotty Harper, whose curling reports in the Winnipeg Free Press enlivened the paper for many years. Not awarded for a number of years, the award was re-introduced in 2005 with the assistance of the Canadian Curling Association.

Paul McLean Award

Michael Burns Jr., who has worked as an official photographer for the Canadian Curling Association for 29 years, is the 2011 winner of the Paul McLean Award.

The award was created in 2007 by the Canadian

ING REPORTERS

Curling Reporters, in conjunction with TSN, in memory of McLean, a TSN executive producer, and his dedication to the sport of curling. McLean passed away on December 14, 2005, at his home in Brampton, Ontario, after a two-year battle with cancer. He was 39.

The award is presented annually to a person in the media who has made an outstanding contribution to the sport of curling from behind the scenes.

Curling photography has been in the Burns family since the early 1960s, when Michael Burns Sr. shot the official photos of the Scotch Cup, the event that marked the beginning of world curling. Mike Jr. joined the family business in 1982 and his first event was the inaugural Scott Tournament of Hearts in Regina. He has been the official Season of Champions photographer since 1995.

Michael Burns Jr., who has worked as an official photographer for the Canadian Curling Association for 29 years, is the 2011 winner of the Paul McLean Award.

2011 CAPITAL ONE CANADA CUP

The Capital One Canada Cup kicks off the 2011-12 Season of Champions November 30 to December 4 at the Rec Plex in Cranbrook, British Columbia, with a brand new format.

Instead of 10 men's and 10 women's teams competing in two pools of five each, seven teams of each gender will compete in a round robin, with the first-place teams earning byes to the finals, and the second and third-place teams meeting in semifinals.

Now in its ninth season, the Canada Cup this year offers a total prize package of $140,000, with the winning teams each receiving $26,000. But most importantly, the winners will become the first teams to qualify for the 2013 Tim Hortons Roar Of The Rings Canadian Curling Trials, which will determine Canada's two representatives at the 2014 Olympic Winter Games in Sochi, Russia.

In addition to berths in the trials — which will be contested December 1 to 8, 2013, in Winnipeg — the Canada Cup champs will also be invited to compete in the 2013 World Financial Group Continental Cup.

The 14 teams qualified for the 2011 Capital One Canada Cup — presented by St. Eugene

Golf Resort & Casino — did so by winning the 2010 Canada Cup, 2011 Scotties Tournament of Hearts, 2011 Tim Hortons Brier or by their final standing on the 2010-11 Canadian Team Ranking System.

The men's field is led by reigning Tim Hortons Brier and Ford World Men's champion Jeff Stoughton of Winnipeg, defending Canada Cup champion Glenn Howard of Coldwater, Ontario; 2010 Olympic gold medallist and three-time Canada Cup champion Kevin Martin of Edmonton and 2010 world champion Kevin Koe of Edmonton.

Rounding out the field are Edmonton's Heather Nedohin, Winnipeg's Chelsea Carey and Rachel Homan of Ottawa.

Defending Canada Cup champion Stefanie Lawton of Saskatoon is hoping to repeat her success and land a berth in the much-coveted 2013 Canadian Curling Trials.

In January 2011, the Canadian Curling Association announced its qualification process for the 2014 Olympic Winter Games.

Eight men's and eight women's teams will compete in the 2013 Tim Hortons Roar Of The Rings Canadian Curling Trials to determine Canada's two Olympic representatives. Round-robin preliminaries, followed by three-team playoffs, will take place in Winnipeg at the MTS Centre December 1 to 8, 2013.

Six teams of each gender will qualify directly into the trials, while the final two berths for each will emerge from a pre-trials competition.

The eight teams for each gender will be determined as follows:

The 2013 Capital One Road To The Roar pre-trials, to be held November 6 to 10 at a site still to be announced, will include 12 men's and 12 women's teams competing in a triple knockout. Four teams of each gender will advance to a modified Page playoff, with two men's and two women's teams qualifying for the trials.

The 12 teams for each gender will qualify from the CTRS as follows:

- The top four teams from the 2010-11 season
- The top four teams from the 2011-12 season
- The top two teams from the 2012-13 season
- The final two teams will earn invitations based on their two-year CTRS points (2011-13)

Teams already qualified for the trials or pre-trials will be replaced by the next-highest-ranking team on the CTRS. Details will be posted on the CCA's website at www.curling.ca.

2010-11 AGM IN BRIEF...

Another curling season completed, another financial success for the Canadian Curling Association, and another notable year for Canadian teams on the international stage.

That was the assessment of the past year from Canada's governing body at its Annual General Meeting held in Ottawa in June.

"This year's National Curling Congress saw several changes that we believe helped enhance the overall experience for all attending delegates," said Greg Stremelaw, the CCA's chief executive officer. "The spirit of the membership was very positive and truly embodied the collaborative efforts on behalf of the CCA and all its member associations. I would like to sincerely thank the NCC planning committee for its work related to this event and the introduction of a curling summit, which produced comprehensive education and dialogue for the benefit of our sport."

For a fourth consecutive year, the CCA finished the fiscal year in the black and with a positive financial outlook. The surplus for 2010-11 was $640,727.

The newly created Curling Assistance Program received a significant boost with the CCA's board of governors allocating $300,000 for this coming year. This funding targets projects designed to develop the sport of curling at the community level or to assist capital projects critical to the operation and health of the CCA's members. The 2011-12 Curling Assistance Program and application details for the CCA's affiliated curling centres is available on the CCA's website.

An updated business plan and organizational strategy for the association was also presented and is available on the CCA's website.

This year's National Curling Congress included a "curling summit" — scheduled between the standard business sessions and AGM — that included presentations on television and social media, coaching and instruction and how to grow the sport of curling in the community.

Curling club professionals from a number of affiliated curling centres across the country helped lead the summit and the round-table discussions. Updates on high performance, information technology, development, championships and national marketing strategies were also provided by the CCA.

This past year, the CCA created a new provincial-territorial ranking system to measure member association performances at all CCA-operated and sanctioned national championships, beginning in 2010-11. Based on the highest average points, this year's Dominion Member Association Cup, presented by TSN, was awarded to co-winners Saskatchewan and Alberta. New Brunswick — the member association making the biggest year-to-year improvement on an average point basis — received the Governors' Cup.

In other news:

- The equitable opportunity to access the CCA's national championships approved at last year's AGM for application at the 2012 Canadian mixed and Canadian seniors has been expanded to include the M&M Meat Shops Canadian Juniors, starting in 2013.

- A new residency policy to compete at national championships was developed and then approved by the provincial-territorial members.

- A policy on transgender participation at all Canadian championships to align with the International Olympic Committee's current policy was brought forward and approved; however, the two-year wait period was amended to one year.

- In 2010, the CCA changed its game timing structure to remove coaching time outs from the time allocation at national events. After a season of implementation, it was decided to reduce the game's playing time from 73 minutes to 71 minutes. During the course of a 10-end game, each team will have two 90-second time outs — including travel time — during which the coaches can access their teams. The change of game playing time will apply at the mixed, seniors, Brier and Hearts, as well as the other televised Season of Champions events. The only exception is the world championships when played in Canada.

- The member association Code of Conduct approved at the 2010 AGM was updated to include a process for handling violations and appeals.

Edmonton's Laura Lochanski was elected association chair for 2011-12 and Jim Campbell of Russell, Ontario, vice-chair.

Having completed their tenures, Victoria's Jack Bowman and Georgina Granchelli of Sydney, Nova Scotia, retired from the board.

Newcomers include Bob Osborne of St. John's, Newfoundland, and Cindy Maddock of Morden, Manitoba.

The 2011-12 AGM will be held in Ottawa on Saturday, June 16, 2012.
